A REAL PERSON

This is a thinking paper today. Take some time to think about the following questions. You can also write down some answers that come to mind.

What new thing did you learn this week?

What do we mean by a 'real person'?

QUESTIONS ON TECHNOLOGY. Let these get you thinking. There are no right or wrong answers.

1. Are you a participant in the technological age? OR Do you rebel against modern technology?
2. What electronic devices do you use? What don't you use and why?
3. Does your technology hinder your personal relationships or enhance them?
4. Do you ever text someone in the same house – or even the same room?
5. Does your technology help or hinder your communication skills – even your reading and writing skills?
6. Would you rather text or email someone rather than actually talk to them? Why?
7. Do you read real books? On-line books? Books on CD?
8. Do you have more or less person to person (face to face) relationships than you used to?
9. Do you prefer listening to a real person or to a DVD presentation?
10. Does our modern technology actually save us time and help us to be more efficient?
11. Is technology changing how we teach and learn? How?

WHAT ARE SOME OF THE SHORTCOMINGS OF USING A DVD AS A TEACHER?

WHAT DO YOU THINK SHOULD BE THE PLACE OF DVDS OR INTERNET PRESENTATIONS IN OUR TEACHING?

WHAT ARE SOME QUALITIES A REAL LIVE TEACHER SHOULD SEEK TO DEVELOP?

WHAT NEGATIVE EFFECTS CAN GIVING REWARDS HAVE ON LEARNING?
