1. It is important not only to get students' attention, but also to _____ it.
2. Another way to say, 'Listen to me' is to say 'pay _____'.
3. When we pay close attention we are also excluding any _____.
4. We are not paying close attention to a task when we fall to the habit of _____.
5. When we are teaching, we want _____ attention from our students.
6. Studies show that a student's attention usually comes and _____ during a class period.
7. Student attention tends to rise when we tell a _____, ask a _____, or get them to do an _____.
8. To keep the attention of the students, we have to keep the class _____ and not have any dead time.
9. A sign of a good class is not always a _____ classroom, but one in which all the students are _____.
10. If you use our IBL curriculum you will have a _____ to follow, including a complete _____.
11. Our teaching materials also include a lot of _____ and related _____.
12. The first thing you will do as students arrive is to get them involved in some activity that they _____ and will _____ later in the hour.
13. This particular lesson from "Daniel" also includes a review _____ and a _____ following the Bible story.
14. One of the secrets of keeping your students' attention is to be well _____ for every part of the class period.
